In developing a comprehensive Christian Estate Plan, you're also encouraged to consider the following:

- The future need for Powers of Attorney (if you are unable, someone to make decisions for you)
- Completing a Health Care Directive (in B.C. it's called a "Representation Agreement")
- A statement of faith (Christian Pre-amble) within your Will (it's assumed you have a Will)
- A "Letter of Direction" outlining specific gifts to specific individuals (china, jewellery, art, etc.)
- Your desire for giving a memorial gift, or perhaps from within your estate creating a significant gift towards the mission and ministry of the church. (a bequest)
